Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Turner:

When I saw the enclosed photographs, it occurred to me that when a person is surrounded by that many flowers, he is seldom standing up delivering an address.

Seriously, we would like you to know that students continue to talk about your comments to them and our graduates. In my thirteen years of handling our commencements, I can honestly tell you that no talk reached the audience so effectively, and I never remember graduates shaking our speakers' hands as they received their diplomas.

We do thank you again. I hope the pictures will recall a pleasant occasion for you and show your family what you were doing on June 1, 1980.

Cordially,
